In order to continue getting-by in America (our home land), we all need to learn the NEW English language! Practice by reading the following conversation until you are able to understand the term 'TENJOOBERRYMUDS'. With a little patience, you'll be able to fit right in with the growing trend!!!

URINE TEST FOR MALES

This will save a lot of money.. No need to go to a specialist. A simplified Do-It-Yourself urine test that may be relevant:-

Go outside and pee in the yard. If ants gather, it's diabetes.

If you pee all over your feet, it's prostate issues.

If it smells like a barbecue, it's cholesterol.

If when you shake it, and your wrist hurts, it's osteoarthritis.

If you go back into the house, and it's still dangling out of your pants, it's probably Alzheimer's.
